Fond memory from High School:

Performing an impromptu award-winning orchestra concert at a hotel atrium in Texas senior year with all the guests watching & enthusiastically applauding and feeling such satisfaction. Participating in and making memories in such high caliber school music organizations like symphony orchestra, symphonic band, marching band, and making such good friends there (and later marrying one of them!!). I have continued with my flute music throughout my life & it has been very rewarding for me. Not to mention the awesome husband I gained who blesses my life beyond measure!!

Fond memory from High School:

I loved my years at Davis. After moving from Brighton High to Davis High at the end of 9th grade, I had a deep appreciation and gratitude for our small and inclusive school, and especially our class. School spirit was a real thing at Davis and the nights under the lights watching football games were my favorite. I guess I loved them too much though, as Golda Downs "expelled" me from Pro Schola mid season because I just couldn't stay in my seat! I am grateful for all of my associations with you - my classmates - you truly influenced me and helped shape me into who I am today. From Bob Rowley to Miss Beatie and Coach Gardiner to Bro. Wegcamp, even Miss Fairbanks to Miss Jarmin, I look back in gratitude for the involved and caring teachers we had that made a difference in our lives.

My Madrigal partner? Well, he turned out to be a great "life" partner and it's been so fun to be married to someone who perpetually see's you through the rose-colored glasses of your teenage years. We are still singing and dancing (and skiing) through life - usually to old dopamine-hit favorites: Chicago, Toto, Journey, and the Doobie Brothers!

Fond memory from High School:

Seeing how kind people were to each other. I'd been in a lot of schools and never seen people reaching out to others the way they did at Davis, especially those who were different. We were typical teenagers, with all the usual worries and fears, but there was also an underlying level of love and concern for others. There was a genuine desire to see others do well. It greatly impacted and changed me. I'm so thankful to have gone to Davis High with all of you.

1 - I loved Coach Draayers stories. He used to share amazing stories of people / events / games from the past. Those stories used to create such an excitement within me and motivated me to be better. He instilled in me such a strong feeling of tradition and a pride for DHS.

2 - There were just so many good people. I'll forever cherish the friends, teachers & coaches that I was able to associate with at DHS. I look back on those days with such a feeling of gratitude. Whenever I'm asked where I grew up and what high school I went to I'm always proud to say Davis. My kids tease me about how weird I am about it, but they can all sing the fight song.

The thing that never stops amazing me - we spent a relatively short amount of time together in high school (only 4 years of our entire lives) and yet all the years and all the stuff that has happened since then melts away when I see schoolmates from so many years ago and it's like we've been close forever. Thanks fellow Darts!

I loved going to the football and basketball games (as part of the marching band and color guard) where we played and performed. Many of my best memories evolve around practicing and performing with the various bands and orchestra -- and the travel and competitions that were a part of the package. I loved the joy of creating something beautiful together. School dances and assemblies -- so much fun! I participated in DECA and the Debate Team my senior year and loved both. Those are actually the skills I have used most in my career. And I loved my old Dodge Dart that I painted fire engine red. :) Still miss that car! I'm so grateful for the wonderful friends I made in high school and what I learned from the class of '82. So sorry to miss the reunion!

I felt a lot of school spirit and enjoyed my time that year making new friends. Some of the things I learned during that year increased my love of reading, writing, music, cooking, photography and a variety of new art skills. And I must say, I remember the huge chef salads served in the lunchroom being amazing!

Fond memory from High School:

I was rather shy kid in school, but I found opportunities to contribute as well as to show a bit of a playfully mischievous nature as many adolescents do.

Hanging out in the shops and learning from great instructors, developing new friendships, and making fun projects are fond memories. Mr. Edwards (ag shop), Mr. Gough (wood shop) and of course, Mr. Rosier (auto shop) were all influential to me. So too, were Mr. Cook and Mr. Rowley, both English teachers whose courses have had lasting impact. These vocational and academic classes have all served me well in my personal life and in a career that has involved field service, engineering, and technical sales.

I enjoyed a close circle of friends mainly from my ward and neighborhood, as well as some from various classes or shop programs. One was our student body photographer, Eric Christensen. Through him I had an opportunity to make the sign holders for the streets our class renamed (Dart Circle and two others). It doesn't sound like much, but it required some design, welding and fitting skills to make each holder fit to the existing street sign in a way that did not obstruct it, but still securely held the larger brown and gold sign that proclaimed the new name for the street.

On another note, does anyone recall something about spirit having its times shortly after our football team's loss to Alta in the state quarter finals? But I digress. Yes, it was a good time to be a student at dear old Davis High School. Happy 40th everyone! (And doesn't that sound bizarre?)

Fond memory from High School:

I can't just share one. But my memories of my dear friend, Cary Blood always cause me to wax nostalgic. We played next to each other on the line, both offense and defense in football. We were next to each other in the line up on the wrestling team and we ate a lot of cheese burgers and donuts at Artic Circle at Harrys, (Now Bowmans). Cary Blood passed away a few years ago without an obituary or notice to many of his friends. He graduated from Westpoint, served in the first Iraq war and lived out his days in New York State. He contracted diabetes which severely impacted his health. He was one of my dearest friends and one of my fondest memories.

Fond memory from High School:

Our Freshman year was just starting, we attended the welcome assembly in the old auditorium. The D'ettes came storming down the aisles dancing to Grease Lightning, then preformed on the stage, everyone danced along and I was blown away at the energy & talent. It dawned on me that school was going to be a blast and it was!
